Poor Richard's Time

Foreword

The theme of our Schenley 1955 Journal is a modern "Poor Richard's Almanac." Although this almanac was written by Benjamin Franklin the sayings which it consists of were not originally his. These proverbs were the wisdom of many ages and nations which he assembled and formed into a connected discourse.

In his almanac Mr. Franklin began with the phrase "Poor Richard says," as if he were quoting from Richard Saunders, (his pen name) thus the almanac received its name.

Many people have said that it is the storehouse of Benjamin Franklin's wit, wisdom, and practical information. Not only were these proverbs used in the days of Mr. Franklin, but as you turn the pages of this book you may realize that you have also said or heard the same expressions many times in our own modern English. They do not only deal with the years 1733 to 1757, a period of twenty-five years, which Mr. Franklin spent composing and polishing his work, but they are very true to this day.

When "Poor Richard's Almanac" was completed it was copied in all of the newspapers over the continent. It was written in several languages and hung above the fireplaces in homes all over the world. It is believed to have had a great deal of influence upon the economic conditions of this time and for several years to follow. After reading the almanac, people were discouraged with useless spending and therefore became much more thrifty and money conscious.

Mr. Franklin wrote well quoted lines such as: "Early to bed, early to rise, makes a man healthy, wealthy, and wise," "God helps them that help themselves," "Keep thy shop and thy shop will keep thee," "Diligence is the Mother of Good Luck," and many others that are familiar to our ear and probably will be heard by many other students for years to come.

In Memoriam

GEORGE C. HELD

Oh, may I join the choir invisible
Of those immortal dead who live again
In lives made better by their presence; live
In deeds of daring rectitude, in scorn
Of miserable aims that end with self,
In thoughts sublime that pierce the night like stars
And with their mild persistence urge men's minds
To vaster issues.

May I reach
That present heaven; be to other souls
A cup of strength in some great agony,
Enkindle generous ardour, feed pure love,
Beget the smiles that have no cruelty,
Be the sweet presence of a good diffused,
And in the diffusion ever more intense!
So shall I join the choir invisible
Whose music is the gladness of the world.
—George Eliot

and dancing,
Found Miss Lilley, Miss Burgo, and
English entrancing.

February Seniors

ELEANOR JACESKO
"Ele"

Senior Homeroom Comm., Majorettes,
Leaders' Club

"Ele" was a swell Schenley majorette;
But she'll be a better stenographer,
on that we'll bet.

SARAH JACKSON

Senior Homeroom Comm.

Sarah's plans after high school
include getting married,
It won't be long till over a threshold
she's carried.

F. GILBERT JAWOROWKI
"Gil"

Journal Staff

Our own "Mr. Big", better thought of as "Gil,"

In Uncle Sam's Marines he'll march with a will.

SCHENLEY AT LATROBE

Schenley opened the 1954 football season with a loss to Latrobe by a score of 19-6.

The Spartans showed some good ball handling, but couldn't capitalize. Latrobe scored in the second period to take the lead.

Schenley came back in the second half to tie the game when Dan Marino intercepted a Wildcat pass and scooted 55 yards for the T.D. The score remained a tie until the Wildcats scored twice to win the game.

SCHENLEY AT DORMONT

Dormont, who replaced Connellsville on the 1954 football schedule, met a tough defensive line in Schenley's final exhibition game of the season. Dormont, unable to gain on the ground, took to passing, and this proved to be the difference in the game. Schenley scored in the third period with a drive that sent Dan Marino over for the score. The final score was Dormont 27—Schenley 7. This being the final exhibition game, Schenley showed it had the material to be a strong contender for the city title.

SCHENLEY AT JEANNETTE

Jeannette's team proved to be too powerful for the Spartans as they were walloped by a score of 27-0.

The first half was a thrilling one as the Jayhawks scored only once. Both Schenley and Jeannette's defenses were hard to penetrate as little yardage was gained.

Schenley came on the field in the second half with more determination, but there was no stopping the Jayhawks' drive as they scored 3 more touchdowns.

SCHENLEY AT SOUTH HILLS

The Spartans opened the City League season with South Hills at Monument Field. Schenley struck paydirt first as Fred Sparte carried the ball over in the second period. Both teams showed great defensive playing as the third period ended with both teams unable to score. In the final period Bob Worthington took a 30 yard pass and ran ten more for the touchdown. South Hills started a drive that took them to Schenley's 15 yard line but time ran out with Schenley taking its first City League game 13-0.

ALLDERDICE AT SCHENLEY

The Spartans ran their winning streak to two games as they downed Allderdice 24-12.

Jim Covington made the first touchdown on an 18 yard end run to give the Spartans the lead. Allderdice scored in the 3rd period to tie the game before the half, but there was no stopping the Spartans as both offense and defense clicked. The Spartans scored 3 touchdowns in the 2nd half to Allderdice's 1 which came in the final period.

SOUTH AT SCHENLEY

The Spartans were finally beaten in their race for the city championship. The Spartans, who previously had won two games, played heads-up ball, but the breaks were just against them.

The first half was a rough and tough one, but South capitalized on a break and took the lead 7-0.

As the second half progressed, Schenley scored, but the extra point was no good, making the score 7-6. South scored in the last period, and that was the clincher. The final score was 14-6 in favor of South.

SCHENLEY AT PEABODY

The Spartans dropped their second game in a row, as they lost to Peabody by a score of 28-0.

There was no stopping the Highlanders as they scored twice in the first half making both extra points. Schenley showed some good ball handling, but just couldn't score. At the half the score was 14-0.

The second half showed the Highlanders continuing their drive by scoring two more touchdowns and again making the conversions. The Spartans tried to score, but couldn't, as time ran out.

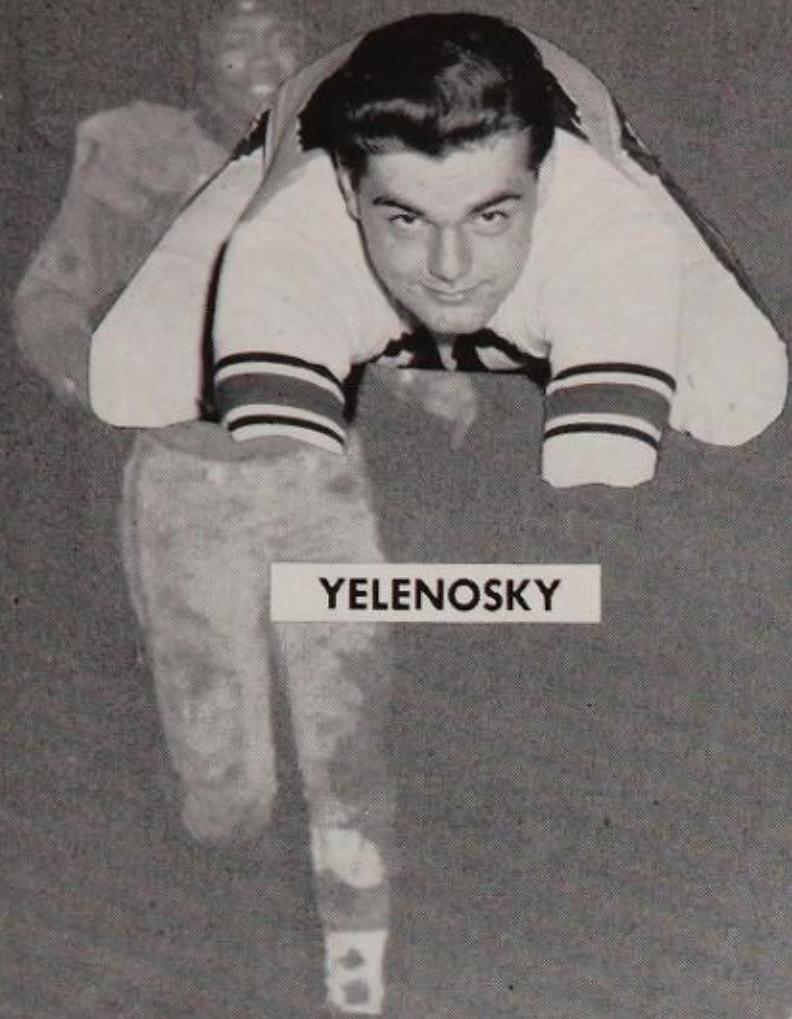

SCHENLEY AT WESTINGHOUSE

The Spartans met the Bulldogs on a muddy field; but as in previous games passing proved the difference, as Schenley lost by a score of 27-12.

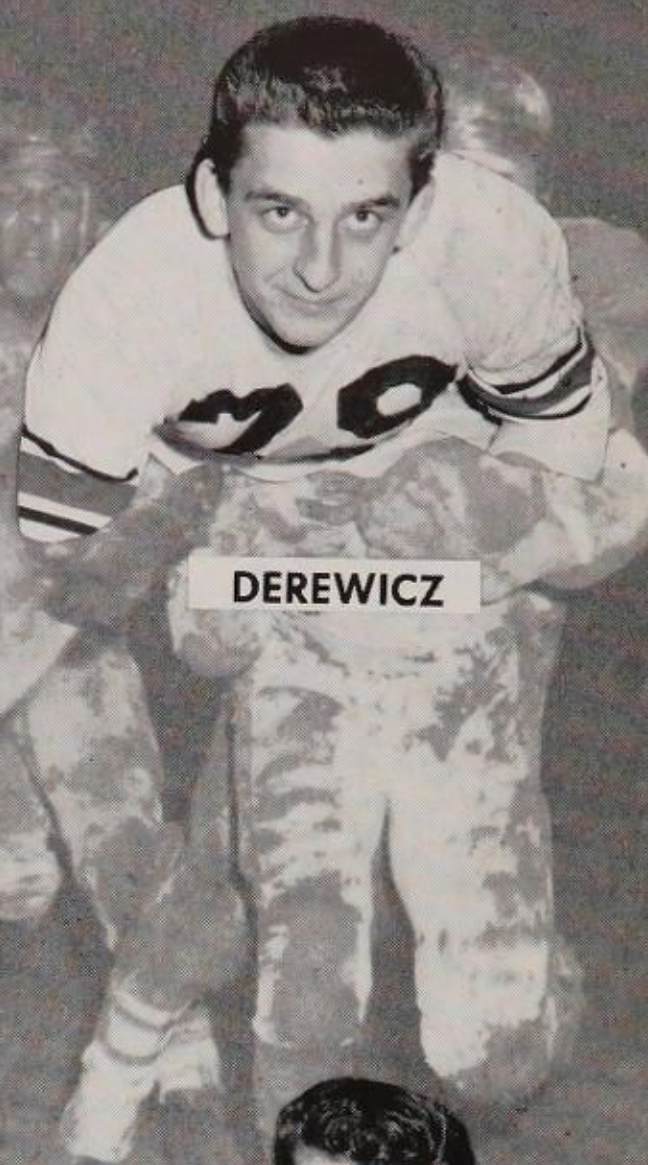

Schenley scored first as Smith hit Worthington with a pass in the second quarter. The Bulldogs bounced back on a 40 yard run by Brown, but the extra point was blocked, making the score 6-6 at the half.

Westinghouse broke the tie in the third period on a pass played by Tibbs. After this touchdown there was no stopping the Bulldogs, as they scored two more touchdowns before the end of the game. Schenley's only other score came on a quarterback sneak by Smith. As the gun ended the game, Schenley was the loser.

The Alphabet

- A is for achievements that we've gained in Schenley High,
And the aptitudes we've shown in the many days gone by.
- B is for the beauty of this school known far and wide,
And the rules and regulations by which students must abide.
- C is for companionship that all our students know,
But they'll always welcome new friends, no matter where they go.
- D is for detention, which is known by one and all,
A time, a place, to make amends, per chance that one should fall.
- E is for endurance—all students must survive,
The heart of education, from which we did derive.
- F is for the faith and the hope some day to see,
Yourself upon the stage as a graduate-to-be.
- G is for the guidance, which our school has firmly shown,
A Schenley graduate, you know, is very widely known.
- H is for the honor of this school which we attend,
And the humility with which a person makes amends.
- I is for intelligence—a measure of the mind;
This measure will help us when our thoughts are hard to find.
- J is for the joys imprinted in our thoughts,
All those happy moments, which can never be forgot.
- K is for the knowledge, a quality quite rare,
In spite of all the troubles students have to bare.
- L is for the lovers, who roam through Schenley's halls,
And waiting for that certain boy to make that certain call.
- M is for the memories deep within our heart,
Those memories with which, we'll never want to part.
- N is for the nights devoted to the "Dagger Speech,"
And the days in school, hearing all the teachers preach.
- O is for occasions, those special times for fun,
After all the piles of homework have finally been done.
- P is for the problems had by every lad and lass,
Especially that which says every student has to pass.
- Q is for the quantity of work we have to do,
And the quality of the mark, when all the work is through.
- R is for the ring we wore, each senior sure was proud,
As we walked the halls of Schenley, our head high in a cloud.
- S is for the seniors, the ones who ran the school,
When it came to freshies, to them, we sure were cruel.
- T is for our teachers, who helped us through our years;
They had to face our laughter, our troubles, and our sneers.
- U is for the unity of this, our senior class;
We'll not forget the fun we've had though time may come and pass.
- V is for the valor, used to meet the outward crisis,
And for those special dances—we'll not forget those prices.
- W is for the "welcome mat," we present to all our guests,
And the willingness and wishfulness with which we faced our tests.
- X marks the spot where our school stands in its splendor,
And the help and services its faculty will render.
- Y is for you and the joys and troubles shared,
As you look back through the years, you'll find you really cared.
- Z is for the zeal we used to tackle all our troubles;
While we were here at Schenley our knowledge has been doubled.
- As you go from A to Z and its qualities you measure,
You find you have your school—a true and lasting treasure.

Class Will

Hear ye! Hear ye! Be it known that we, the 1955 Senior Class of Schenley High School, being of sound mind, even after three years of incarceration and being subjected to the whims and vagaries of our dearly beloved instructors, hereby do ordain and establish this, our Last Will and Testament.

TO THE UNDERCLASSMEN:

1. To the Freshies, Sophs, and Juniors, we do hereby bequeath the right to hope that someday they will be seniors and be as great and as well respected as the 1955 seniors of said corporation.
2. To all new students, who have entered through our gates this past year, we bequeath the honor of having been admitted to this so-called "institution of learning."
3. To the bewildered Freshmen, we leave a book entitled, "Crime and Punishment in Schenley High School," which describes the "do's and don'ts" that should be followed by the most obedient inmates of this institution.
4. To the Sophomores, we will our terrific brains which were capable of holding those worthy words which began "Friends, Romans, and Countrymen."
5. To the Juniors, we leave our empty ink bottles and limp fingers to be used in combatting that incurable disease, "squeegeitis."
6. To Ourselves, we leave the glory of having been the greatest senior class Schenley High School has graduated in the year, 1955.

TO THE FACULTY:

1. To Mr. Cogan, we give the "O. K." to hold sessions in his magnificent courtroom and dish out sentences especially suited to the situations that have occurred.
2. To Mr. May, we bequeath the stubs and records of all tickets that were sold for senior activities during the year.
3. To Miss Andrews, we leave the worn copies of our schedules, along with our deepest thanks for the wise advice given us in making selections of the subjects, through which we plodded, during our too short term of settlement in this lyceum.
4. To Mr. Clements, we give the honor of having been the advisor to the best Journal that has ever been printed with a white cover.
5. To Miss Malick and Miss Byrne, we leave 1000 new red pencils to be used with the same efficiency and ease as in past years, in grading senior themes of those poor unfortunates who hope someday to gain the rank of senior.
6. To the entire faculty, we bequeath the ability to breathe freely and be happy once more, now that we are leaving this establishment.

IN ADDITION:

1. To the next Journal Staff, we present the battered dummy of this yearbook, to be used as a reference in producing another masterpiece.
2. Beside these humble bequests, we give our deepest regards to those who graciously receive them.

We do hereby appoint Mr. McCormick, our most esteemed principal, as sole executor of this, our Last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof, we, the class of nineteen hundred and fifty-five, hereby set our name and seal to this document on this, the third day of January, nineteen hundred and fifty-five.

Signed,
Graduating Classes of 1955

PERFECTION GLASS GOODS

Really Are

"Glass Goods of the Better Kind"

PENNSYLVANIA
GLASS PRODUCTS CO., Inc.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

Pharmaceutical Glassware

The world is bright, your life seems free,
You're just as happy as can be.
A merry hello to all you meet,
A smile for teachers that you greet.

You stroll so merrily into class,
And sit beside a cute young lass.
The world to you seems at its best,
Then says the teacher, "We'll have a test."

They're small, they're cute, they roam the hall,
They answer to your beck and call.
They worry when it's time for tests,
They think of seniors as real pests.

They eat enough to feed a bird,
They ask you, "Gee, what's this here word?"
And as they leave the class they adore,
You find no freshies anymore.

BEST OF LUCK TO THE SENIORS OF THE

CLASS OF 1955

When the day has turned to night,
And stars give out their glittering light;
From the moon the stars do borrow,
Light to pave their way to a morrow.

The barren earth the trees do hide,
As the flowers slumber side by side.
A man walks slowly in the deep, dark night,
To the inevitable shining of the guiding light.

Up the staircase, solemn and slow,
To the place above where a throne is aglow.
A mighty hand directs his way,
As he walks to a lasting, eternal day.

Before him is God, his jury and judge,
The man is silent—afraid to budge;
In a moment's time he'll know full well,
If his fate is heaven or the fire of hell.

When a fellow meets a girl, he goes to all extremes.

He'll sing, laugh, and tell a joke; he's really on the beam.

He'll flash, at her, his moonstruck eyes,
And when she's not looking, lovingly sigh.

He'll tell of the car he's going to get,
And how he plans to fly a jet.
He'll really try to "Put on the dog,"
Expecting her to be in a fog.

He'll go out of his way to please her taste,
And run to see her in rapid haste.
And when he thinks he's good and ready,
He finds out that she's going steady.

Look out for that mob that's pushing through,
They'll knock you down and step on you.

They're hungry boy! They want to eat!
Do you think they care if they step on your feet?

They'll bang their tray into your back,
If I were you, I'd keep out of their track.

They spill their gravy all over your hair,
And slop on you delicacies—Oh, so rare!

And while you're quietly eating your lunch,
They're assembled in a corner to chew and munch.

And when they've left and the cafeteria's clear,
You look inside and think, "Oh, dear."

The condition of the place, you won't have to guess,
Just pity the person who cleans up the mess.

A tall, dark man comes walking by,
And all the girls begin to sigh.
He's just a dream—a movie star,
With looks like that, he'll go quite far.

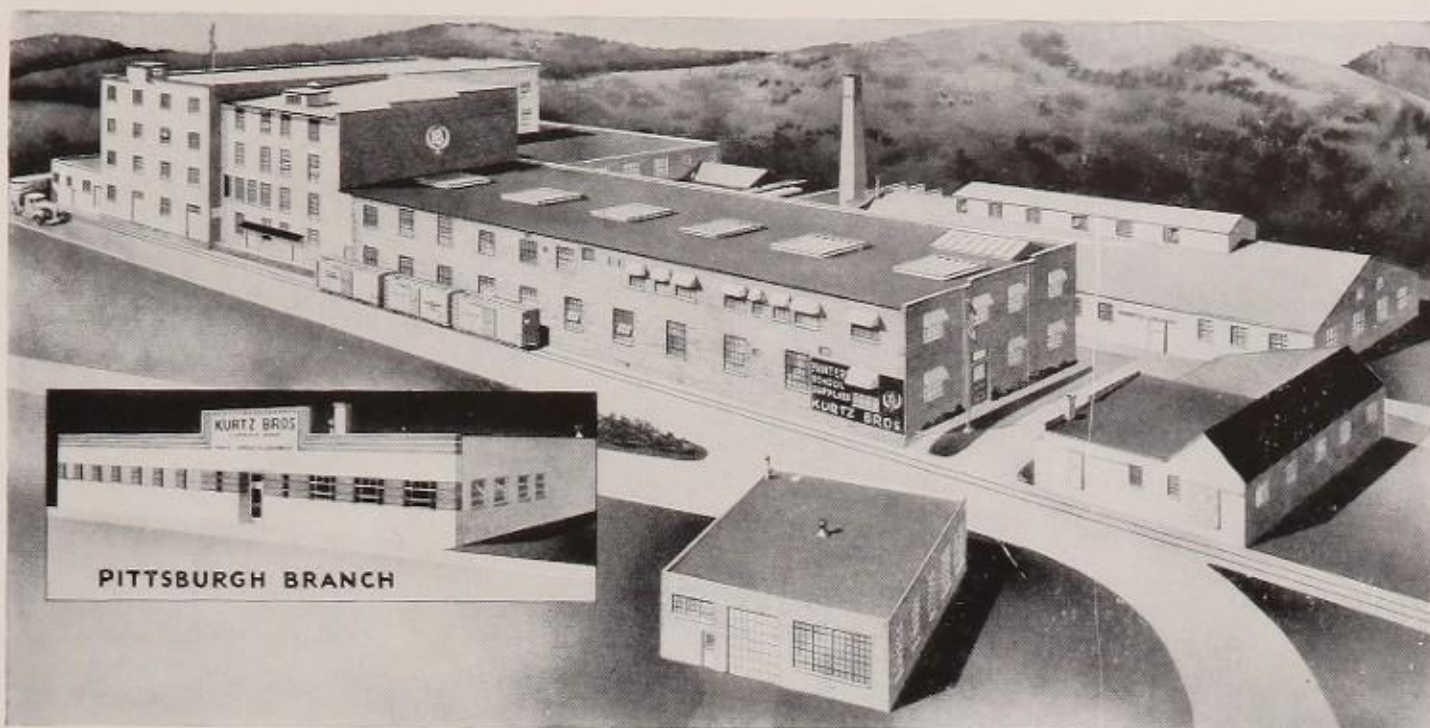

He slowly walks with a steady pace,
Looks at the girls with a smile on his face.
They'll dream about him for the rest of the day,
And wonder if he's really friendly and gay.

The very next day to their sudden dismay,
A truth is discovered. A price he must pay!
For behind the looks and those wonderful features,
This man, in disguise, was only a teacher.

If I had a million dollars, let me tell you what I'd do.
I'd buy you fifteen lollypops and chocolate cookies too.

I'd buy you all the rings you'd care for,
Minks and sables, furs galore.
I'd buy you cars that can't be beat,
And lay my money at your feet.

If I had a million dollars, here's what I'd
HAVE to do,
Spend four fourths on income tax, and give the rest to you.

Built to Serve You . . .

Pictured above, Kurtz Bros. factory and warehouses along with the Pittsburgh Branch contain more than 112,000 square feet of floor space. Here, under one roof, your school annuals are printed, bound and covered. A plant built to serve your printing needs.
